Bombay 20th March 1853
My dear Sir, I have some interesting particulars to communicate to you by this opportunity.
Captain Felix Jones, as probably you are aware, arrived here on the 24th of last month, and applied to Govt. for permission to return to duty.
His experience, he stated, of the tracts & people in the Gulf being deemed of some value, he had readily foregone a moiety of his leave, and returned to Bombay with the sanction of the Secy. of State. The Bombay Govt. however, had received no intimation whatever from the Home Govt. regarding Captain Jones

رسالة من باتريك رايان، بومباي إلى لويس بيلي [١ ظ] (٦/٢)

It is true that Colonel Patrick Stewart had mentioned in one of his despatches special communications that the services of Captain Jones would be valuable in connection with the Electric Telegraphs, and indeed ^{stated} that it had been arranged in the India office to depute him to the Persian Gulf specially for this duty. This communication I refer to was made in November last. In the meantime Captain Jones suffered from a recurrence of illness, and all further discussion on the subject appears to have ^{been} dropped. The Govt here ^{replied} accordingly very peremptorily to Captain's application, pointing out to him that they had no instructions regarding him from the Secy of State, and that no occasion is likely to arise requiring his services in connection with the telegraphs, and further that another officer having been appointed to act for him during his absence, he could not return to ~~his~~ duty till the expiration of his leave.

Captain Jones was in no way prepared for this reply. He was, when he received it, completing his

رسالة من باتريك رايان، بومباي إلى لويس بيلي [٢ ظ] (٦/٤)

preparations to return to Berkshire.
His position was a most awkward & pitiable one, but he had his own precipitateness to blame in the matter. He has now removed from the Esplanade to a cottage at Wandora, (a marine retreat near Bombay) and will hold out there ~~the~~ during the remainder of his leave - a period of about nine months I believe.
Captain Playfair left for Zanzibar, accomp^d. by Dr Leonard, in the last mail steamer via Aden. The "Pleid" preceded him by a week - He objected to sail in the latter vessel, owing to the inefficient manner in which it was man-رسالة من باتريك راين، بومباي إلى لويس بيلي [١٩٣٠] (٦/٥) ③ He will arrive at Zanzibar in time to escape that monster nuisance - the periodical visit of the northern whats. The twenty Dhows which the Agent at Shanzah reports to have left for the Persian Gulf in the beginning of the present year, will in all probability form part of the Piratical fleet which will visit Zanzibar this season.

Intelligence has been received by telegraph from Paris of the death of Sir James Outram. The Indian Army have lost a heroic friend and supporter, and will feel this loss keenly at this juncture. India too much mourning the loss of one who had her true interests and welfare at heart.

Colonel Marriott has arrived by the mail just in. It is confidently reputed that Major Inverness will be appointed to the Residency at Aden. The only difficulty in the way is the separation of the Political and military authority, which since their combination in one of the same officer, occasioned those acrimonious disputes which at one time paralyzed the administration of Aden. You will no doubt hear more about this from a higher source than myself.

I am, my dear Sir, very truly yours,
Patrick Ryan

My dear Sir,
I write a few lines by the H.M.S. "Severn" arrived here a day or two after the departure of the "Mercury". Commodore Montresor has expressed himself ready to his Steam Tenders to join him from Poncomalee, and will despatch one of them to Muscat. Meanwhile he is reading up the correspondence in Oman, so as I suppose to give Your first report from Muscat of Berceice by the Sultan would give him a splendid strategical position, but he would incur the undying hatred of the Wahabees

I write to explain, with

Of course the supply could

In my invention that I sent to Cayton for the purpose of getting a supply thereof but failed owing to the exhaustion of the funds.

To keep the system which it would be necessary to have holes at top for air, well secured with salt water to prevent

My dear Sir,

I am in receipt of your welcome note of the 25th ultimo.

Your letter vindicating your proceedings in the Persian Gulf from the censure of the Govt of India, was only forwarded to Simla on the 4th instant. It was strongly supported by His the Governor, who held that the measures adopted by you were warranted by the your instructions & the traditions of your office, & that but for crime which you could not no doubt lead to some

The paper appears to be a fragment of a larger document or letter. The handwriting is dense and fills most of the page. There are some larger, more legible words or phrases interspersed throughout the script. The paper is mounted on a larger, plain, light-colored background.

Such good information further states "listen" in the D.H. paper that Synd Ham - bin Jhes and his minister Shaikh Salah bin - Hil intend addressing Government on the subject, protesting not only against the part taken by our marines on the night of the 6th in defence of a Kulis whom the Arabs repudiated and whose case was already hopelessly lost - (mark that expression I would swear had come from our friend A.J.) but also against the wanton destruction of the Bedouin (you remember what the 2nd Officer of Hugh More told us about his seeing them pulling down huts out side the wall - ha! ha! is it not good

My dear Colonel Could not get my letter about Muscat up in time to catch the Governor, on whom I called but sorry to say rather late, he had gone out at daylight next day he was off so I asked Bainbridge, who had been up here for a couple of days to take the letter back and get it forwarded to the Governor before he goes to sea - in command

The same effect, on the whole he approved of my going up the Gulf - wonder what faults he will find with Muscat affairs - ?

Forgive this hurried scrawl, Kainbridge time is up for the train - any more news about Muscat affairs?

Believe me,

Sincerely yours destruction of the fort at Wahrein - ha! ha! I wish he had seen the fort, all the mines we could have made never would have had
