5 We beg leave to bring to the No. 2/ notice of your Honble Court an application we have received from Assistant Surgeon Campbell, of this Establishment, to be permitted to draw with arrears his Field pay and allowances, in addition to the salary he receives, as attached to His Royal Highness Prince Abbas Mirza. -

6 A similar application was preferred by His Excellency Sir Gore Ouseley in favor of Mr Campbell, and brought to the notice of your Honorable Court in the 29th @ 31st Paragraphs of our letter of the 16th of April 1814. This application was however rejected in the 5th Paragraph of your despatch of the 19th May 1815. wherein you are pleased to state, that you did not think proper to authorize any additional allowance to Mr. Campbell, beyond the allowance of 700 Rupees per Mensem which you had already granted to him—

In support of Mr. Campbell's present application, His Majesty's present Minister at the Court of Tehran, has transmitted to us a transcript of a Despatch addressed by him to His Majesty's Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, detailing the various occasions, on which Mr. Campbell has afforded his assistance to the public service, and to which we take the liberty of referring your Humble Court.

10 Adverting again to the case of Mr Campbell, the Auditor proceeds to remark that he (Mr Campbell) "could have no cause for complaint against the order that confirmed a higher rate of allowances than the regulations granted to him - whilst on foreign service, for his attendance upon the Prince of Persia was not only

But that "the case of Mr Sharp appeared to him to be materially different, he had been attached to His Majesty's Mission at the Court of Persia, and his salary debited to that head, the application therefore of your Honble Court's orders issued in the case of Mr Campbell, had actually deprived Mr Sharp for a time of

That " all officers employed on the Service beyond the territories of the Honble Company received the field allowances of their rank, but the case of Assistant Surgeon Dan attached to the Vizam's regular force in Berar (who received field allowances) was peculiarly applicable, that the custom of the Service therefore appeared to be in favor of Mr Sharp's claim, but in whatever view the salary which he had received whilst attached to His Majesty's Embassy at the Court of Persia, might be considered, he was of opinion, that he had a claim of right to the pay of his rank from the time it was discontinued and every reason to expect indulgence to the full extent of his application"

His Royal Highness, the Prince Royal of Persia, having applied to Sir Harford Jones to nominate a Medical Gentleman to attend on His Royal Highness's person and Household; and Sir Harford Jones having thought proper to select Mr James Drummond Campbell of our Bombay Medical Establishment for this purpose, with an allowance of Bombay Rupees 700 per month, including every pay or emolument he might be entitled to draw by his Rank or Employment in our Service, and Mr Campbell having, as we have been informed, given great satisfaction to His Royal

Royal Highness: We direct that, so long as the Prince may be desirous of Mr Campbell's attendance in the capacity - abovementioned, he continue to draw the monthly allowance of Bombay Rupees 700, as fixed by Sir Harford Jones; And as this appointment of Mr Campbell must be considered as a mark of personal respect and attention towards the Prince Royal; we direct, that the salary which Mr Campbell has been authorized to draw on this account be not carried, either to the subsidy or to the account of His Royal Highness the Prince Royal, but, on the contrary, that it be paid by our President in Council at Bombay and carried to the Expenses of that Settlement, -

But as, with the exception of the salary of the private secretary to the Ambassador, the expenses of this Embassy, are borne by the Crown, and consequently the extraordinary allowances recommended to be granted to Mr Cormick, if finally sanctioned, would become a charge upon His Majesty's Government, the question regarding the grant of the proposed additional allowance must be left to the determination of Sir George Cussey; and we direct that you require the agents of Mr Cormick to refund the sum which from these orders

5 All Officers employed in the Service beyond the Territories of the Honble Company received the Field Allowances of their Rank but the case of Mr Surgeon Daw attached to the Mirza's regular force in Berar is peculiarly applicable to that now before your Honble Board and he receives field allowances; the custom of the Service therefore appears to be in favor of the present claim and Garrison - a duty which was not un-attended with trouble and expense, as well as in consideration of my services in Georgia, altho' the Honorable Board did not accede to His Excellency's request, Shorps' were discontinued also, the same rule having been considered applicable to both. - Since that Gentlemen's return to India he has received the arrears of his field pay and allowances from the abovementioned periods. - I hope the Honorable Board will consider me in justice entitled to the same indulgence, and I beg leave humbly to request that they will be graciously pleased to permit me in like manner to draw the arrears of my field pay and allowances as an assistant Surgeon from the 18th June 1813. -

Should the Honorable Board have any objections to comply with my request, I hope they will have the goodness to forward the same to The Supreme Government.
